SENIOR GRAPHIC DESIGNER JOINS CONCENTRE COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

MADISON, Wisconsin – February 21, 2007 – Concentre Communications, Inc., a branding, marketing and public relations agency, announced today that Brooke Dovenbarger has joined the firm as a Senior Graphic Designer. Brooke joined the graphic design team led by Tien Barnett, Sr. Director, Creative Services.

Brooke has 13 years of experience in planning, concepting and executing integrated creative campaigns. She moved to Madison from Minneapolis, where she has worked as an art director for several different agencies, including Penn Garritano Direct Marketing, FFwd, and the Carlson Marketing Group. Previously, she worked for Unicom Marketing Group, Chicago, and Ogilvy One: The Lacey Group Worldwide, Singapore.

“Brooke is an exceptionally creative individual who brings a wealth of knowledge and diverse experience to our creative team,” said Tien. “We are very fortunate to have her.”

Brooke has received several graphic design awards for her work, most notably in 2004 and 2005. She has a BA in Graphic Design from Ohio University. She lives in Middleton, Wisconsin with her husband Vance and son Will.
